THE States of Holland are to aſſemble To-morrow. Beſides a Propoſal from the Emperor which they are to have under Conſideration, it is ſaid that they will take their final Reſolution upon Two Millions propoſed to be raiſed for the repairing the Fortifications of their Frontier Towns, and providing the Magazines with the neceſſary Stores; as alſo for ſettling a Fund for a Million voted to be granted to the North Hollanders for repairing their Dikes, to be paid in Ten Years, viz. 100,000 Florins a Year. The Commiſſioners of the Admiralties are ſent for to take Directions for fitting out a certain Number of Frigates for the Security of the Trade in the Streights. There has been of late a Deputation from the Council of State to Boiſleduc, on a Project to build Sluices there, to prevent any Enterprize againſt that Town, by overflowing the Ground about it where it is acceſſible.

Hague, Dec. 3, N. S. The States of Holland have been aſſembled theſe three Days. The Penſionary went to the Aſſembly this Day. The States General being informed that the Munſterians had aſſigned Winter-Quarters to 190 Foot and 70 Horſe of Pruſſian Troops in the Lordſhip of Bronkhorſt, of the Dependance of Guelderland, in which Lordſhip the Munſterians pretend to have ſome Sort of Juriſdiction, though conteſted by the Dutch, the ſaid States ſent ſome Days ago for the Miniſters of Pruſſia and Munſter, and deſired them to let their reſpective Maſters know that they will not ſuffer ſuch a Thing, but will oppoſe it by Force of Arms; whereupon the Pruſſian Miniſter has diſpatched an Expreſs to the General who commands the Pruſſian Troops in the Country of Munſter, and the other has taken the Matter ad referendum. Of the ten Members named at Utrecht to be admitted into the College of the Nobles, ſix only have been choſen and agreed to by the Aſſembly of the States; the four others, viz. General de Ginkel, Count Maurice of Naſſau, Count Henry de la Leck, and the Baron de Alblas, have been excluded by Reaſon of their being in the military Service, according to a Reſolution taken ſome Years ago to that Effect. The Commiſſioners of the Admiralty are actually here, daily conferring with the States Deputies upon their Sea Affairs. By Letters from Mantua, arrived here Yeſterday, of the 20th of laſt Month, we learn, that the Army of the Allies had abandoned the Oglio the 17th, as alſo Reggio and Modena, and was retired to Cremona behind the Naviglio; which News is this Day confirmed by Letters from Paris, though they don't own that the above-mentioned Places are evacuated.
